Mayor Pro Tem Gary Crisp began the meeting at 7 p.m. with invocation and the saying of the Pledge of Allegiance. Stephanie Nichelson said a prayer.

Gary Crisp presented the new business: Christmas bonuses for the employees. $50.00 was voted on and passed. The second item on the list was voting on Randy Huskins property. Gary Crisp says that they really don't need to motion, but we can if everyone would feel better. Charles Buttrum motioned, Stephanie Nichelson second the motion. Motion passed 3-0. Third item was voting on the City Attorney, Mr. Brandon Bowen. Gary Crisp says that Stephanie introduced Mr. Bowen and that he comes highly recommended. Stephanie Nichelson made a motion to have Brandon Bowen as the new City Attorney. Charles Buttrum made the second motion. Motion passed 3-0.

Mayor Pro Tem Gary Crisp asked if they still wanted to have an Executive Session. Stephanie Nichelson said yes. Stephanie Nichelson motioned for the Executive Session for personnel issues and Charles Buttrum second the motion. Motion carried 3-0. Stephanie Nichelson asked that they City Attorney Brandon Bowen join the meeting.

Executive Session took place concerning the personnel issues with Mayor Pro Tem Gary Crisp, Councilmembers Charles Buttrum, Stephanie Nichelson, Kim Billue, and the new City Attorney Brandon Bowen. Upon return from the Executive session, Mayor Pro Tem Gary Crisp stated that there were no votes taken.

Mayor Pro Tem called on the public comments. Mr. Watkins was first, and he stated that he would wait. Heather Griffis was next. She wanted to discuss her trash issues and how it was not being picked up. Heather Griffis stated that she received citations, and her trash wasn't picked up. She stated that she came down to the City Hall to discuss this and she was treated very poorly. Heather Griffis stated that she was told the rules of the trash service and was treated very unprofessionally. Mayor Pro Tem Gary Crisp stated that trash was an issue. Gary Crisp stated what the rules were and maybe we should review it. Gary Crisp stated that he knew when Anthony and the guys go out and there is an issue, they do take pictures. Mr. Watkins asked if Anthony said anything, and Heather Griffis stated that no one said anything to her.

Gary Crisp needed a motion for adjournment. Charles Buttrum motioned; Stephanie Nichelson seconded. Motion carried 3-0. Meeting adjourned.
